

Please leave satellite radio alone. Let competition shake things out like we always do in this country when a new technology arises.